

Our core values are a foundation for your success and therefore become ours as well

maerklich

1) Our Passion

Our goals correspond directly to the goals of our customers. We pursue this with passion, which can be seen, felt and experienced in all aspects of what we do. This goes beyond finding the actual technological solution and satisfying the needs of the customer and relevant objectives.

2) Innovation

Our motto is differentiation through both conceptual and technological development to gain the advantage. Using this method we can deliver the customer maximum added value which ultimately assists them and Aerolite to advance forward.

3) People and the Environment

In addition to focusing on individuals, we also focus on the environment. We are highly concerned and focused on the principles of social and environmental sustainability and take our responsibility in all respects and all phases of our processes seriously.

4) Team Spirit

Only a lively, healthy team spirit promotes and promises success. This is why we promote and challenge our employees in all aspects, by cultivating open communications and keeping our entire team well informed in all company departments and beyond, so that the customer can feel and experience this team spirit.